

PROGRAMME PROFILE

Educational Programme	Geography of Tourism in Romanian and Hungarian languages
Degree Awarded	Licentiate in Geography, Geography of Tourism specialization
Standard Length of Studies (Number of ECTS Credits)	Three years 180 credits
Type of study	Daily education, Distance learning (in Romanian language)
Higher Education Institution	“Babeş-Bolyai” University of Cluj-Napoca, Romania
Faculty/Department	Faculty of Geography, Department of Human Geography
Contact Person	Prof. Dr. Ciangă Nicolae, Prof. Dr. Benedek József, conf. dr. Dezsi Ştefan (ID)
Phone	02 64 596 116 int. 215, 217, 218; 07 22 344 772
Fax	02 64 597 988
E-mail	cianga@geografie.ubbcluj.ro
Website	www.geografie.ubbcluj.ro
Profile of the Degree Programme	Geography
Target Group / Addresses	Graduates of the High School and College
Entrance Conditions	Through files contest, 50 % from the average of the four years in High School and 50 % the average from High School-leaving examination (baccalaureate exam)
Further Education Possibilities	Erasmus Programme, Master Degree and Doctorate Degree
Description of Study	The length of study for the Geography of Tourism specialization is of three years, with an accumulation of 180 credits. It consists in activities at lectures, practical works, seminars and projects, field applications in the 1 st and the 2 nd year of study. The curriculum has a structure adopted to the specialization profile consisting in geographical, and economic disciplines, informatics and GIS, foreign language (three years). The university degree paper is the result of a complex activity of bibliographical, cartographical and field documentation, final phase elaboration of the paper and delivery. It is a very required specialization, with an opening towards the inner and the international work market.
Purposes of the Programme	Training of the specialists for the very complex field of tourism (management, organization, scientific research), but also for the learning of specialty.
Specialization / Area of Expertise	Tourism
Extra Peculiarities	The complex and complete character, creating competences and practical skills in the field.
Practical Training	The students are involved in the practical works belonging to every discipline in the 1 st and in the 2 nd years of study, in a practical activity for the making of the graduation paper and in the POSDRU programme of education in touristic units.
Final Examinations	The graduates elaborate and sustain a graduation paper
Gained Abilities and Skills	As a result of a complex educational programme, the graduates know and can unfold guide touristic activities, they can organize touristic activities, hotel management, they can be analysts in tourism, participants in research teams and elaboration of touristic development projects; teaching staff.
Job Placement, Potential Field of Professional Activity	After the graduation, the variety of employment on the work market is very large: hotel activities, agencies of tourism, agencies of development, scientific research.