

Educational Programme	EDUCATIONAL MANAGEMENT
Degree Awarded	Master Programme
Standard Length of Studies (Number of ECTS Credits)	2 years - 4 semesters - 120 ECTS
Type of Study	Full-time
Higher Education Institution	Babeş-Bolyai University
Faculty / Department	Faculty of European Studies
Contact Person	Professor, PhD Ovidiu PECICAN
Phone	+40 742 838281
Fax	+40 264 590251
E-mail	pecolino999@yahoo.com
Profile of the Degree Programme	Master in EDUCATIONAL MANAGEMENT
Target Group / Addressees	The envisaged target groups are formed by students who finished the B.A. courses, but also by any other categories, being available in both intensive lecture series or long-distance programmes. The courses can be followed by any student of public universities within Europe.
Entrance Conditions	The Bachelor graduates willing to attend the courses of Educational Management or Pedagogy are expected to successfully cope with the questions and challenges of a career interview, that shall be carried interactively. It will consist in open discussions on topics from the guiding reader. The candidates ought to be able to bring arguments for their option for Educational Management and also to speak about their future perspectives and career expectations, in a professional manner. The interview has a 100% share of the final grade. The motivation and performances of the candidates shall be given full consideration. In case of equal averages, the following criteria shall be applied: 1. the grade of the Bachelor thesis; 2. the average grade of the faculty (only applicable should two candidates have the same grade at the Master entrance examination and at the Bachelor thesis). In this respect, a Reader containing topics of Educational Management or Pedagogy has been issued.
Further Education Possibilities	The graduates of Educational are the opportunity to continue their academic formation and thoroughgoing study and carry out research work in one of the fields approached by the Curricula of the Faculty. Moreover, the Doctoral School gives the PhD students a chance to build an academic career or within the University's staff. The interest towards the European Paradigm is easily raised by means of the challenging and complex courses, such as: The European policy in curriculum field. (the comparative analyses). European and Romanian new vistas in management curriculum field. Management curriculum in Romania. The manager and the quality insurance in curriculum field.

Description of Study	The master programme through trans-disciplinary and inter-disciplinary approach plans to integrate specific knowledge or border areas separate theoretical variants in the generation of change and institutional development, requested by Romania's integration into European structures. Classical management approach thus gain by introducing new aspects of the current implications of culture, science and technology development at European level on the organization, material and human resources, market services, etc. It has developed a curriculum which folds upon the role and competences that define a highly qualified, proficient project manager. The MA in Educational Management is the first initiative of this sort, both for the “Babeş-Bolyai” University and for the national network of graduate studies. It was founded with the special aim of instructing students so as to successfully meet the needs of the current professional environment of the European Union.
Purposes of the Programme	The key objectives of this master focus on building an intra-European masters network, opened integration of existing elements specific cultural and educational fields, as key elements in institutional strategic planning, will allow "open Europe" of institutions and institutional development strategy for the integration of elements .
Specialization / Area of Expertise	This MA programme comes as a continuation of BA studies in a variety of fields, making students familiar to the concept of „European-Education,, and developing competencies and abilities necessary to applying to or implementing management and projects in schools. Also this Master assures fitness curriculum to European standards and training needs identified at European level in managerial fields.
Extra Peculiarities	The Faculty of European Studies cooperates with the School Inspectorate so as to assure the students a professional internship, specialized in educational management, within the consultancy other local or national public and private sectors, institutions.
Practical Training	The Master Programme Educational Management benefits of all the necessary logistic and financial support for organizing students’ internships in a professional manner. The Master students shall be integrated within the Internship Programme in the field of School Inspectorate.
Final Examinations	Research thesis
Gained Abilities and Skills	This master programme is designed to provide academic training for future specialists in order to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop specific knowledge, abilities, skills and competencies in Educational Management • Develop project management skills at organizational, regional and European level • Develop practical research capacity in the European institutions.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop specific negotiation-communication abilities and skills • Develop teamwork abilities and skills for public/private, inter-regional/European partnership projects. • Develop competencies for: innovation, analysis, evaluation; generating scenarios and solutions; project implementation and best practices; eLearning.
Job Placement, Potential Field of Professional Activity	After having graduated the master programme Educational Management, the students will benefit from a wide range of competences, all of which contribute to the shaping of competitive, proficient actors for the European professional scene of the XXI century. Trained for the complex requirements of the labour market, the career paths the graduates tend to prefer are generally oriented towards: school, public institutions, diplomacy. Being highly skilled, the graduates hardly have any difficulties in integrating themselves in the labour market and lay the bases of successful careers. The graduates will become: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Specialist or experts within the Departments of Educational at the level of Local Community, Governments, Local Councils, Prefect's Offices, District Councils, Ministries, Agencies for the quality insurance, but also of some similar institutions at the level of the European Union. • Specialist within the local, national, European level public institutions or in different international institutions for: educational programmes, administration, policies management, consultancy; • Head Teacher/Professor in schools, university • Trainer within the programs of continuous training that aim at processes of Educational Management or at the relation between Romania and other international institutions of education; • Consultant in the domain of Education.