

+PROGRAMME PROFILE

Educational Programme	Teologia pastorală în comunitățile ecleziale Pastoral Theology in Ecclesiastic Communities (in Blaj)
Degree Awarded	Master in Pastoral theology in ecclesiastic communities (in Blaj)
Standard Length of Studies (Number of ECTS Credits)	2 years – 4 semesters – 120 ECTS
Type of Study	Full-time
Higher Education Institution	Babeş-Bolyai University, Romania
Faculty / Department	Faculty of Greek-Catholic Theology / Department of Blaj
Contact Person	Conf. PhD Ioan Mitrofan
Phone	+40-258710440
Fax	+40-258710440
E-mail	mitro fan@rcnet.ro
Website	http://gct.ubbcluj.ro/
Target Group / Addressees	The specialization is addressed to persons who have got a degree diploma and who are already involved or will be concerned in the pastorate of the Greek-Catholic Church United with Rome: theology graduates/applicants for priesthood; priests training; teachers of religion, laics and consecrate persons involved in the social and philanthropic activity of the Church.
Entrance Conditions	graduation average grade
Further Education Possibilities	The master's programme aims at providing students with the appropriate tools for further doctoral studies.
Description of Study	Core disciplines: The First Catechesis Written by Saint Paul: The Second Letter to Tesselonians. (in Italian); Juridical Aspects in the Pastoral Action; The Permanent Formation of the Priest in the Context of the Christian Ethos; The Church Sui Iuris: Structures and Mission; The pastoral activity of the Greek - Catholic Clergy during the XVIII-XIX centuries; Pastoral Liturgy; The Parish; The family: object and subject of the pastoral rule; The sexual and pastoral ethics of marriage and family (in italian); The divine freedom, source of christian freedom; The dinamism of the ecclesiastic community in the light of St. Paul's Pastoral Epistles; Differentiated Pastorate; Spiritual paternity: individual pastorate; Theological-Pastoral Anthropology; The morphology of European religiosity; Anticlericalism and secularism during the XIX-XXth centuries.
Purposes of the Programme	The master in Pastoral Theology in Ecclesiastic Communities proposed to be accredited has the following aims: 1. The main objective of the master is to help the student to acquire increased competences in the field of pastorship in the contemporary Romanian and European society. 2. Training the master candidate as regards the theological

	contents. 3. Supporting the student to acquire specific competences in the scientific research.
Specialization / Area of Expertise	Pastoral Theology
Extra Peculiarities	-
Practical Training
Final Examinations	Research thesis
Gained Abilities and Skills	The master Pastoral Theology in Ecclesiastic Communities prepares specialists in pastoral theology both from a scientific point of view and from a pastoral one: 1. Competences in the field of pastorate of the ecclesiastic communities in the Greek-Catholic Church United with Rome: the pastorate of family, the pastorate of different categories of age, the pastorate by means of liturgy; making efficient the parochial and diocesan pastoral structures.
Job Placement, Potential Field of Professional Activity	The graduates of the master can choose varied fields of theological research work as well as of the Pastoral field; activity in other pastoral structures within the parishes or dioceses.

Date: October, 20, 2010

Signature:

Conf. dr. Ioan Mitrofan