

Educational Programme	Management of International Relations and European Policies
Degree Awarded	Master in Management of International Relations and European Policies
Standard Length of Studies (Number of ECTS Credits)	2 years – 4 semesters – 120 ECTS
Type of Study	Full-time
Higher Education Institution	Babeş-Bolyai University
Faculty / Department	Faculty of History and Philosophy
Contact Person	Prof. PhD Adrian Ivan
Phone	+40 264 405300 ext. 5265
Fax	+40 264 405326
E-mail	adrian_ivan2007@yahoo.com
Profile of the Degree Programme	Management of International Relations and European Policies degree program
Target Group / Addressees	Considering the interdisciplinary nature of international relations and European policies in the framework of social sciences and the humanities (history, economics, law, sociology, diplomatic and community language, political science), the master's degree programme is designed for all graduates regardless of their BA degree.
Entrance Conditions	Admission requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ research project-based interview (in a modern language);</li> <li>▪ selection criteria for equal average grades: overall average grade, graduation examination average grade.</li> </ul>
Further Education Possibilities	The master's programme aims at providing students with the appropriate tools for further doctoral studies.
Description of Study	Core disciplines: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Contemporary Theories of International Relations (in French);</li> <li>▪ The European Neighbourhood Policy (in English);</li> <li>▪ The Governance of the European Union (in French);</li> <li>▪ National and Ethnic Minorities in International Relations (in French);</li> <li>▪ The Management of European Projects (in English);</li> <li>▪ European Economic Policies (in Romanian);</li> <li>▪ The European Union: from the Treaty of Maastricht to the Treaty of Lisbon (in Romanian).</li> </ul>
Purposes of the Programme	Based upon rigorous scientific methods, modern teaching and analysis schemes, with an interactive and co-participative character, the master's degree programme aims to provide students with in-depth knowledge and to develop the competences and skills required on the professional markets in the area of international relations and European studies. The second objective of the course is to train the future specialists, i.e. European/international employees, experts for non-governmental organisations, analysts or managers in international organisations or multinational companies.

Specialization / Area of Expertise	International Relations European policies
Extra Peculiarities	-
Practical Training	During the two years of the master's program the curriculum sets several specialty practices and research seminars.
Final Examinations	Research thesis
Gained Abilities and Skills	Specific skills that form an essential part of international relations. Students develop working knowledge of multicultural and multilingual communication, negotiation in international forums and other key competencies that make up a complete toolkit for every internationally-oriented professional.
Job Placement, Potential Field of Professional Activity	There are a variety of job placements for the graduates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- experts for non-governmental organisations;</li> <li>- analysts or managers in international organisations or multinational companies;</li> <li>- academic career;</li> <li>- career possibilities in different ministries of the Romanian Government, the European Parliament, the European Commission, Romanian diplomacy.</li> </ul>