

Educational Programme	Master Programme – Psychological techniques for behavioral control and development of human potential
Degree Awarded	Degree of MSc
Standard Length of Studies (Number of ECTS Credits)	2 years (4 semesters) 130 ECST (including 10 ECTS for the final graduation exam)
Type of Study	Master Programme
Higher Education Institution	Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj Napoca, Romania
Faculty/Department	Faculty of Psychology and Sciences of Education/ Department of Clinical Psychology and Psychotherapy
Contact Person	Associate Professor Anca Dobrean, PhD
Phone	0040 264 590967
Fax	0040 264 590967
E-mail	ancadobrean@psychology.ro
Website	www.clinicalpsychology.ro
Profile of the Degree Programme	The Master Programme offers an advance formation in clinical psychology an cognitive behavioral psychotherapy at international standards and requirements. This programme offers students the theoretical, research and practical grounding needed for a career as a clinical psychologist, counseling psychologist and cognitive-behavioral psychologist. After graduation, the students can continue their formation at a doctoral and postdoctoral level in evidence based assessment and intervention in psychotherapy.
Target group/ Addressees	Psychologists, physicians with specialization in mental health, social workers, educators and any other professions with interests in mental health interventions.
Entrance Conditions	Undergraduate degree in Psychology and any other field related to the proposed program of study.
Further Education Possibilities	Postuniversity degree, Doctoral degree, Psotdoctoral degree
Description of Study	4 semesters Examples of courses: Clinical Psychology and Individual and Group Psychotherapies, Advanced Research Methods, Developmental clinical Psychology, Applied Cognitive Psychology, Clinical assessment and diagnosis, Cognitive behavioral intervention in schools, Cognitive behavioral intervention organization, Cognitive behavioral intervention in judiciar and military field, Parentingm Positive Psychology, Supervised Practice For more details: www.clinicalpsychology.ro
Purposes of the Programme	This graduation of this program ensures access to the following professional levels: (1) practicing psychologist in clinical psychology; (2) practicing psychologist in cognitive-behavioral psychological counseling; (3) principal psychologist in cognitive-behavioral psychotherapies.
Specialization/ Area of Expertise	Clinical Psychology and Cognitive Behavioral Psychotherapy
Extra Peculiarities	-
Practical Training	Practical training in clinical psychology and cognitive behavioral psychotherapy

Final Examinations	Thesis presentation (dissertation)
Gained Abilities and Skills	Competences in clinical psychology and cognitive behavioral psychotherapy
Job Placement, Potential Field of Professional Activity	Private practice in clinical psychology and cognitive behavioral psychotherapy, and any field related with mental health interventions (disorders and optimization)