

Educational Programme	Sports Journalism
Degree Awarded	Master in Sports journalism
Standard Length of Studies (Number of ECTS Credits)	2 years – 4 semesters – 120 ECTS
Type of Study	Distance learning
Higher Education Institution	Babeş-Bolyai University
Faculty / Department	Faculty of Political Science, Administration and Communication
Contact Person	Lect. univ. dr. Andreea Mogoş
Phone	+40264-595871
Fax	+40264-595871
E-mail	Andreea.mogos@polito.ubbcluj.ro ; andreea_mogos@yahoo.com
Profile of the Degree Programme	Journalism degree program
Target Group / Addressees	The program is open to graduates coming from all accredited higher education institutions with degree in communication, journalism, physical education and sports, social sciences.
Entrance Conditions	Application file (BA diploma and GPA)
Further Education Possibilities	The master's programme aims at providing students with the appropriate tools for further doctoral studies in communication sciences.
Description of Study	Designed as a system of compulsory core courses each semester and optional courses, the program provides a flexible and reliable education and covers a broad scale of professional fields from an interdisciplinary perspective: media studies, sociology and physical education and sports.
Purposes of the Programme	The primary aim of the program is the professionalization of journalists, media graduates and sports instructors.
Specialization / Area of Expertise	The MA in Sports Journalism is an interdisciplinary program offering specialized journalism courses and sports culture and techniques.
Extra Peculiarities	The first Romanian MA programme in Sports Journalism.
Practical Training	Professional internship in media institutions (2 semesters)
Final Examinations	Research thesis
Gained Abilities and Skills	The program is based on a combination of theoretical and practical courses in the field of sports journalism with a selection of optional courses, designed to obtain journalism skills in print media, audio-visual and on-line.
Job Placement, Potential Field of Professional Activity	Possible job placements: journalists in sports departments (print media, audio-visual, on-line), sports editors, sports photographers, media relations coordinators in sports clubs.