- k) To ensure the protection of any personal data they may come into contact with during the course of their student activities at UBB, in accordance with applicable personal data protection legislation and the internal regulations of UBB. The aforementioned data protection obligation shall remain in full force and effect even after the termination of the contractual relationship with UBB.

Art. 6. Payment Methods and Terms (applicable to fee-paying students):

6.1. The amount of the tuition fee shall be established by the University Senate in accordance with legal regulations, upon the proposal of the faculties, and shall be made known under the terms provided for in this agreement.

6.2. The tuition fee shall be paid in full or in instalments, within the deadlines and under the conditions established and announced by the University.

6.3. Failure to pay tuition fees within the deadlines specified in this contract shall result in the accrual of late payment penalties. The payment of accrued penalties must be made on the date the principal debt is settled.

6.4. Failure to pay tuition fees and/or any due late payment penalties prior to an assessment date shall result in the student being barred from sitting the assessment, subject to the standard consequences of non-attendance.

6.5. An expelled student may only re-enrol in degree programmes offered by the University upon the full settlement of any outstanding debts owed to the institution.

Art. 7. Termination of the Contract:

7.1. The higher education learning contract may be terminated by the mutual written consent of the parties. Any obligations accrued up to the date of termination must be fulfilled in accordance with the contractual terms.

7.2. The higher education learning contract shall terminate upon the student's graduation. Any obligations accrued up to the date of termination must be fulfilled in accordance with the contractual terms.

7.3. The University may unilaterally terminate this contract for cause in the event of non-fulfilment of obligations by the student. In such cases, the University shall be entitled to the payment by the student of all accumulated debts, outstanding penalties, and/or material damages.

7.4. This contract shall terminate automatically by operation of law if the student requests withdrawal from studies or academic mobility to another higher education institution.

7.5. No forbearance or indulgence granted by the University shall be construed as a waiver of the expulsion clauses or the explicit forfeiture clauses (pacta commissoria) stipulated herein.

Art. 8. Final Provisions

8.1. The student undertakes to comply with the provisions of the Law on Safety and Health at Work No. 319/2006. The student consents to the processing of personal data verifying their status as an enrolled student, particularly for the purpose of granting statutory benefits, including health insurance without payment of contributions and subsidised or free transport.

8.2. In the event of any dispute arising out of or in connection with the interpretation, performance, or termination of this contract, the parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts of Cluj-Napoca.

8.3. The contracting parties mutually agree that any of the following types of signature applied to this contract – namely a handwritten signature, a handwritten signature transmitted in duplicate, a scanned or digitally transmitted handwritten signature, a simple electronic signature, or an advanced electronic signature – shall constitute conclusive evidence of the parties' express agreement to the clauses of this contract.

8.4. This contract is executed at the University today, _____ 2026, in 2 (two) original counterparts, one for each contracting party.

ANNEX 1 – Regulations for Special Situations in Accordance with Article 12 of the Regulations Governing Admission, Tuition, and Graduation Fees

1. Withdrawal from studies – at Bachelor’s or Master’s level – shall be processed upon submission of an application approved by the faculty management, either prior to or following enrolment.

a. First-year students admitted to fee-paying places shall sign the learning agreement upon confirmation of their place. In the event of a request to withdraw from studies, submitted by means of a written and registered application to the faculty secretariat during the period between the signing of the contract and the day prior to the commencement of the academic year, the tuition fee payments shall be refunded in full.

b. With the exception of first year students, all students who request to withdraw from studies prior to the beginning of the academic year will receive a full refund of the tuition fee paid in advance for the period remaining from the time of withdrawal, by the end of the academic year.

c. Following the commencement of the academic year and subsequent to enrolment, students enrolled in fee-paying programmes, regardless of their year of study, shall owe tuition fees calculated on the basis of the date of submission of the written withdrawal application, as follows:

- If the withdrawal application is registered during the first semester, the student shall owe 50% of the total annual tuition fee;
- If the withdrawal application is registered during the second semester, the student shall owe the total annual tuition fee in full.

d. The net tuition fee payable at the time of withdrawal shall be determined as the difference between the cumulative total fee owed and the cumulative total fees paid since the commencement of the academic year, plus any outstanding tuition fees from preceding academic years.

e. The refund of any amounts representing tuition fees shall be processed exclusively upon written application submitted subsequent to formal withdrawal.

2. Re-enrolment – at Bachelor’s or Master’s level – students shall pay the required fees in instalments, as follows:

a. The re-enrolment fee, along with any outstanding arrears from previous academic years (with the exception of outstanding examination fees), shall be paid prior to the commencement of the academic year in which the re-enrolment takes effect, within the deadlines established by the respective faculties for re-enrolled students (upon submission of the re-enrolment application);

b. The tuition fee applicable to the academic year in which the student is re-enrolled, comprising the following: fees for failed subjects from previous years (outstanding examinations) and any applicable fees for courses from subsequent years of study that the student requests to include in the learning agreement, which shall be paid over the course of the academic year as follows:

- Students from Romania, other Member States of the European Union (EU), the European Economic Area (EEA), or the Swiss Confederation shall pay, for the academic year in which they are re-enrolled, only the fees corresponding to failed examinations; these shall be treated as part of the tuition fee for the respective academic year, along with any applicable fees for subjects from subsequent years that the student requests to include in the learning agreement. Fees corresponding to semesters I and II shall be paid by no later than the 15th of December of the current academic year.
- Babeş-Bolyai University students who are citizens of states that are not members of the European Union (EU), the European Economic Area (EEA), or the Swiss Confederation, and who are enrolled on a self-funding basis in foreign currency, shall pay the tuition fees in the foreign currency amounts established for the 2026-2027 academic year, in accordance with Annex No. 4 to the Regulations Governing Admission, Tuition, and Graduation Fees.

3. Interruption of studies – at Bachelor’s or Master’s level – upon the resumption of their studies, students shall be required to meet any new requirements resulting from updates made to the curricula, including those relating to modifications in tuition fees. The tuition fees owed by students enrolled in fee-paying places who request an interruption of studies shall be determined as follows:

a. Following the commencement of the academic year and subsequent to enrolment, students enrolled in fee-paying programmes, regardless of their year of study, shall owe tuition fees calculated on the basis of the date of submission of the written application for the interruption of studies, as follows:

- If the application for the interruption of studies is registered during the first semester, the student shall owe 50% of the total annual tuition fee;
- If the application for the interruption of studies is registered during the second semester, the student shall owe the total annual tuition fee in full.

b. The net tuition fee payable at the time of the interruption of studies shall be determined as the difference between the cumulative total fee owed and the cumulative total fees paid since the commencement of the academic year, plus any outstanding tuition fees from preceding academic years.

4. Student academic mobility from external institutions to fee-paying places. Students who benefit from academic mobility shall be subject to the regulations established for the programme and year of study to which they have transferred. Students shall pay the tuition fees prescribed for the academic year in which the academic mobility takes effect.

5. In the event of redistribution (shift) from a fee-paying place to a state-funded place during the admission process – arising either from the withdrawal of candidates initially admitted to state-funded places or from the allocation of supplementary state-funded places – candidates shall be entitled to a full refund of the tuition fee or the fee fraction paid upon confirmation of their place. A place shall be deemed confirmed if the student pays at least the first instalment of the tuition fee in advance and signs the learning agreement. The refund of the fee shall be processed on the basis of the lists compiled by the faculty, without requiring the submission of an application to this effect.

6. In the event of redistribution (shift) from a state-funded place to a fee-paying place, students in years 2, 3, and 4, respectively, who are making standard academic progress without any interruption of studies, shall pay the tuition fee applicable to their student cohort.
