ADDENDUM – Regulations for certain situations stipulated in art. 12 of the Regulation of Tuition Fees

- 1. Withdrawal from studies - Bachelor's or Master's degree - is achieved based on a request approved by the faculty management, prior to the enrolment or after the enrolment.
 - a. First-year students, declared admitted to studies on fee, will sign a learning contract upon their confirmation of the place. In the case of a request for withdrawal from studies, by written request registered at the faculty secretary's office, within the time from signing the contract and the day prior to the beginning of the academic year, tuition fees are to be fully reimbursed.
 - b. In the case of request for the withdrawal from studies prior to the beginning of the academic year, students, others than those in the first year, benefit from the full reimbursement of the tuition fee paid in advance.
 - c. After the beginning of the academic year, after the enrolment, students in study programmes on a fee, regardless of their year of study, have to pay the tuition fee depending on the moment they requested in writing for the withdrawal from studies, as follows:
 - If the request for withdrawal from studies is registered during the first semester of the academic year, the student will have to pay 50% of the total amount of the tuition fee;
 - If the request for withdrawal from studies is registered during the second semester of the academic year, the student will have to pay 100% of the total amount of the tuition fee.
 - d. The net fee to be paid upon the moment of withdrawal will be determined as the difference between the total fee owed cumulatively and the total fee paid cumulatively from the beginning of the academic year, adding to which there could be possible unpaid fees from previous academic years.
 - e. The reimbursement of possible sums of money representing the tuition fees will be done only upon request, after the withdrawal.
- 2. Re-enrolment - Bachelor's or Master's degree - students will pay together with the re-enrolment fee the possible sum of money owed from previous academic years when the students studied at UBB and the first instalment of the tuition fee for the academic year when they apply for the re-enrolment.
- 3. Suspension of studies - Bachelor's or Master's degree - upon resuming their studies, students have the obligation to fulfil the demands resulted in the updating of curricula, including those referring to alteration of fees. Tuition fees owed by the students enrolled on a fee who request the suspension of studies is determined as follows:
 - a. After the beginning of the academic year, after the enrolment, students in study programmes on a fee, regardless of the year of study, owe the tuition fee depending on the moment they requested in writing the suspension of studies, as follows:
 - If the request for suspension is registered during the first semester of the academic year, students owe 50% of the total tuition fee;
 - If the request for suspension is registered during the second semester of the academic year, students owe 100% of the total tuition fee.
 - b. The net fee to be paid upon the suspension of studies will be decided as a difference between the total amount owed cumulatively and the total fee paid cumulatively from the beginning of the academic year, adding to which there could be possible unpaid fees from previous academic years.
- 4. Academic mobility of students from other institutions on places with a fee. Students on academic mobility follow the plan of the study programme and year where they have been transferred. Students will pay the tuition fee stipulated for the academic year of the academic mobility.
- 5. In case of gliding by re-distribution from places on fee to budgeted places, upon the admission competition, as a result of the withdrawal of candidates who had initially been admitted on budgeted places, or as a result of added budgeted places, the candidates are entitled to the reimbursement of the fee or a fraction of the fee they paid upon confirmation of the place. A place is considered confirmed if the student pays in advance at least the first instalment of the tuition fee and signs the learning contract. The reimbursement of the fee is done based on a request submitted to the Faculty, within 3 years from the payment of the fee.
- 6. In case of gliding by re-distribution from budgeted places on fee, second-, third-, respectively fourth-year students will pay the fee corresponding to their class, if they had a normal study path, without suspension of studies.
